35 U.S.C. § 103(a) Obviousness Rejections

Obviousness Rejection Based on U.S. Patent No. 6,773,938 to Wood et al. in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,313,434 to Patterson et al.

Claims 1, 4 through 6, 11, 12, 14 through 16, 22, 23 and 28 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wood et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,773,938) in view of Patterson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,313,434). Applicant respectfully traverses this rejection, as hereinafter set forth.

35 U.S.C. 103(c)(1) recites:

Subject matter developed by another person, which qualifies as prior art only under one or more of subsections (e), (f), and (g) of section 102 of this title, shall not preclude patentability under this section where the subject matter and the claimed invention were, at the time the claimed invention was made, owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person.

Applicant asserts that Wood et al. (which issued from application no. 10/230,653, filed Aug. 29, 2002 and published Mar. 4, 2004) qualifies as prior art to this application (which was filed Sep. 29, 2003) only under one or more of subsections (e), (f), and (g) of 35 U.S.C. §102. Applicant additionally asserts that the subject matter of this application, and in particular the inventions of claims 1, 4 through 6, 11, 12, 14 through 16, 22, 23 and 28, were owned or subject to an obligation of assignment to Micron Technology, Inc. at the time the claimed inventions were made, as evidenced by the recordation of assignment at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on microfilm located at reel 014570 and frame 0165 on Sep. 29, 2003. At the time of the invention of claims 1, 4 through 6, 11, 12, 14 through 16, 22, 23 and 28 Wood et al. was assigned to and owned by the same Micron Technology, Inc., as evidenced by the recordation of assignment at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on microfilm located at reel 013245 and frame 0570 on Aug. 29, 2002. Therefore the subject matter described in Wood et al. and the inventions of claims 1, 4 through 6, 11, 12, 14 through 16, 22, 23 and 28 were, at the time the inventions of claims 1, 4 through 6, 11, 12, 14 through 16, 22, 23 and 28 were made, "owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person," as recited in 35 U.S.C. §103(c). As a result, Applicant respectfully asserts that under 35 U.S.C. §103(c), the subject matter of Wood et al. cannot preclude patentability of the inventions of claims 1, 4 through 6, 11, 12, 14 through 16, 22, 23 and 28 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a).

Therefore, Applicant respectfully requests that the Examiner withdraw the rejections to claims 1, 4 through 6, 11, 12, 14 through 16, 22, 23 and 28 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) based on Wood et al. in combination with Patterson et al.

Obviousness Rejection Based on U.S. Patent No. 6,773,938 to Wood et al. in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,313,434 to Patterson et al. and further in view of U.S. Patent No. 6,429,037 to Wenham et al.

Claims 8 through 10, 18, 20, 21, and 25 through 27 stand rejected under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) as being unpatentable over Wood et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,773,938) in view of Patterson et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,313,434) and further in view of Wenham et al. (U.S. Patent No. 6,429,037). Applicant respectfully traverses this rejection, as hereinafter set forth.

Applicant asserts that Wood et al. (which issued from application no. 10/230,653, filed Aug. 29, 2002 and published Mar. 4, 2004) qualifies as prior art to this application (which was filed Sep. 29, 2003) only under one or more of subsections (e), (f), and (g) of 35 U.S.C. §102. Applicant additionally asserts that the subject matter of this application, and in particular the inventions of claims 8 through 10, 18, 20, 21, and 25 through 27, were owned or subject to an obligation of assignment to Micron Technology, Inc. at the time the claimed inventions were made, as evidenced by the recordation of assignment at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on microfilm located at reel 014570 and frame 0165 on Sep. 29, 2003. At the time of the invention of claims 8 through 10, 18, 20, 21, and 25 through 27 Wood et al. was assigned to and owned by the same Micron Technology, Inc., as evidenced by the recordation of assignment at the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office on microfilm located at reel 013245 and frame 0570 on Aug. 29, 2002. Therefore the subject matter described in Wood et al. and the inventions of claims 8 through 10, 18, 20, 21, and 25 through 27 were, at the time the inventions of claims 8 through 10, 18, 20, 21, and 25 through 27 were made, "owned by the same person or subject to an obligation of assignment to the same person," as recited in 35 U.S.C. §103(c). As a result, Applicant respectfully asserts that under 35 U.S.C. §103(c), the subject matter of Wood et al. cannot preclude patentability of the inventions of claims 8 through 10, 18, 20, 21, and 25 through 27 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a).

Therefore, Applicant respectfully requests that the Examiner withdraw the rejections to claims 8 through 10, 18, 20, 21, and 25 through 27 under 35 U.S.C. § 103(a) based on Wood et al. in combination with Patterson et al. and Wenham et al.
